

Main Meeting Show & Tell
Joe Mathis describes the use of framework on this Mt. Rushmore and Native American scroll work. He also described the process used to do the delicate scrollwork. Denny Wetter Showed the two turnings he just completed. One was a thin wall turning from walnut and the other a mahogany bowl with a top. John Slezak presented a Brazillian Cherry and gabon ebony hinge he created to be used in his laptop desk. John Philips showed a beef jerky slicer from walnut, a nut cracker turned from vera wood and turned salt and pepper shakers.. Adam Ross showed samples of spalted oak and Florida oak.

