Letter from the Editor

Our membership is declining for the summer, snowbirds going home, vacations, weddings. We still do have some members staying and with that in mind were going to continue having great meetings.

I'd like to try a new program working toward getting more member involvement. What I would like to propose is , in addition to our regular drawing, we also have a member supplied item, hopefully made by a member. As a start, this coming meeting, Paul Piehl will do a demo on pen turning, and the pen he turns will be the item added to the drawings. The lucky winner of the pen will be responsible for the next months member supplied item for drawing, and it will continue this way. Wishing anyone a great summer and anyone leaving for the summer, a safe return.
